I notice Crysis Warhammer has all the Korean battle stuff again in their trailer...I hope they realise that the alien side of Crysis was the best part of the game....but yep, Far Cry 2...can't wait, that and Fallen 3.

The great thing is these are just our picks for the remainder of 2008...2009 is shaping up to be just as awesome if not better...a great time for gaming.

Prototype is the one I'm waiting for most..I think that's coming in 2009. The trailer looks phenomenal. I bet they'll turn it into a movie.
